Criminal Practile.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DALLAS (Tex.) Sept. 12.—{Exclusive Dispatch.] The Fort Worth Telegram of today-reiterates its charges of last Sunday that the oil wells at Beaumont have been "saited" by agents of the Standard Oil Company. The Telegram declares that numerous "saited" wells have been purchased cheaply by a company known to be a dummy concern of the Standard Oil Company, which capped the purchased wells and kept them out of service until such time as the purchasers saw fit to let them flow again.

The Telegram states that it has printed the exposures on the authority of George C. Hutchins of Fort Worth, the Texas representative of a St. Louis company. Mr. Hutchins is quoted as saying among other statements: "In Beaumont I heard not one man, but half a dozen men, discussing the matter. It is accepted as a fact down there by those who have investigated, and I was surprised that the papers of that district were not the first to get hold of the report. Before I left Beaumont, detectives had been put to work investigating, and it was firmly believed that somebody would go to the penitentiary."

Unpleasant Episode Growing Out of Invitation to Dinner.

Why the English Yach'sman Wal Not be Present Al hough He Was Invited.

(BT THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) Sept. 13.-An supleasant episode, with a phase of in-ternational interest, has been the out-growth of a dinner to be given next Priday night, the 18th inst., by the Sea-wanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club. Through a series of misavopehensions on the part, seemingly, of some pressure. "WELL DONE ROXBURGHE," SAYS THE KING.

ENGAGEMENT TO MISS GOELET PLEASES HIS MAJESTY.

Easy Way to Provide Money That English Society Needs-New Duches Will Start With Big Social Pull Husband Going in for Politics.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) LONDON, Sept. 18.—[Exclusive Dis-patch.] When King Edward heard of the Duke of Roxburghe's engagement to Miss May Goelet, he said: "Well done, Roxburghe."

The King regards all such marriages with high approval, being painfully aware that English society needs money than anything to keep it alive. The match was the prime topic of dissmart society foregathered for the first time since the London season ended, and there was much speculation as to serious competitor for social laurels with other American duchesses, of whom Consuelo, Duchess of Mariborough, is the greatest power.

The Duke of Roxburghe will take a field street. Owing to the attenuation field street. Owing to the attenuation of his income by the depreciation of agricultural land, heavy expenses in maintaining his estate, and providing jointures for his mother and sisters, he has been obliged to live very quietly. It is said he intends now to go in for nolities, giving up the arms.

It is said he intends now to go in for politics, giving up the army.

The new Duchess will start with a big social pull, not only by reason of her hasband's position, but because she is connected through Mrs. Goelet's brother-in-law. Ambassador Herbert, with the great Bucoleuch-Durham-Abercorn clan, and on her husband's side with the Churchill family in gill its important ramifications, while the Dowager Duchess of Roxburghe has great influence at court, and particularly with the Queen.

It only needs ambition on the part of the new Duchess, backed by everything that wealth, rank and connections can give to make her one of the most important social personages in England When, she comes to London she will command more royalties for her par-cles than any of his ducal rivals.

Worth is already at work on the trousseau, which will be distinctly according to Miss Goelet's own taste, not her mother's. When 'liss Goelet made her debut in London at the age of 18. Mrs. Goelet insisted that she should wear the traditional white frock of 'he debutante wherever she went, but Miss May was obdurate and managed to

MARVELOUS RADIUM.

THEORY OF LORD KELVIN. LONDON, Sept. 13 .- [Exclusive Dispatch.] What Prof. C. V. Boys terms "the miracle of radium" has naturally received much attention in scientific circles. At a meeting of the science branch of the British association, Lord Kelvin, in a paper which he fead, made an interesting suggestion in connection with its perpetual emission of heat at, ecording to M. Curies' calculation, the rate of about ninety centigrade calorics per gramme per hour.

He said that if the emission of heat at this rate went on for 10,000 hours ere would be as much heat as would there would be as much near as would raise the temperature of 900,000 grammes of water 1 deg. centigrade. It seemed utterly impossible to Lord Kelvin that this would come from a store of energy lost out of the gramme of radium in 10,000 hours.

It seems, therefore, absolutely cerome way to supply energy to radium the follocing comparison: Suppose a piece of white and a piece of black cloth, hermetically sealed in similar glass cases, were submerged in similar glass vessels of water and ex-posed to the sun. The water in the ves-sel containing the black cloth would be kept very sensibly warmer than that containing the white cloth. Here the thermal energy was communicated to the black cloth by waves of sunlight, and was given out as thern ric heat to the water in the glass around it.

Thus through water there was actually an energy traveling inward in virtue of waves of light, and outward through the same space in virtue of thermal conduction.

Lord Kelvin suggested that experiments be made comparing heat emis-sion from radium wholly surrounded with thick lead, with that found in sur-roundings heretofore used.

BELGRADE, Sept. 12.—The report that King Peter had sent a message to the Czar to beg him to reconsider his attitude toward the Servian officers, which the King reparded as partly the cause of the new revolt in the army, is officially denied. It is pointed out that there is no motive for such an appeal, as the powers have all recognized the revolution to be Servia's private affair, and the Skuptchina has pardoned the conspirators. The King, as a constitutional monarch, is bound to respect the decision of Parliament. The leaders of the army plot at Nish will be tried by court-martial on the charge of threatening to kill the officers concerned in the coup d'etat.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—[Exclisive Dispatch.] Thousands of hungry patients are patiently waiting to see how a row over a little fourth-class postoffice in Greenwood, Del., will be decided.

The removal of Miss Todd, who has served more than five years, was made upon the recommendation of Senator Alice, whom the administration recognizes as a political referee in all materials.

Alice, whom the administration recognizes as a political referee in all matters relating to the distribution of Federal patronage in the lower two counties of Delnware.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow, commenting upon the general question of distribution of postofice patronage, explains how the "referee" system originated, and how it operates in various States. the "referee" system originated, and how it operates in various States. During President Cleveland's administration civil service reformers and others' made a vigorous protest against the wholesale removal of fourth-class postmasters, nearly all of whom at that time were Republicans. Mr. Cleveland directed his Postmaster-General to issue an order that all fourth-class postmasters should be continued in office for a term of four years, and should only be removed for cause.

When President McKinley was inaugurated, he continued the Clevelaid order, and Postmaster-General Payne is now administering the affairs of the Postoffice Department on the same basis. Miss Todd has served more than four years, and the reason urged for her removal by Senator Alice—that she made her office a headquarters for a faction of the Republican party—is regarded as sufficient to justify the action recently taken.

PARIS. Sept. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The autumn maneuvers in Limousin, where Gen. De Negrier with an army corps is putting into practice his ideas of tactics for the future, derived from the lessons of the Boer war, are resulting in marked success for Gen. De Negrier, who has during the operations outmaneuvered, outfought and beaten Gen. Langiois, his adversary, who steadfastly handled his own army corps in accordance with the tactics prescribed in France and Germany, the obseitet futility of which Gen. De Negrier is demonstrating by actual maneuvers. The most striking novelties in Gen. De Negrier's tactics are loose, scattered formation and the use of mixed flying columns, composed not exclusively of cavalry, as hitherto has been the case in European warfare, but of infantry, mounted on ponies and bicycles, horse artillery and cavalry. The opinion of military authorities is that these Limousin maneuvers directed by Gén. De Negrier will revisolutionise the system of tactics and fighting formation now prevailing in france, which is practically the same in the maneuvers.

All of the other departments are so thoroughly entrenched behind the civil service barricade that partisanship no longer cuts any material figure in appointments. Under the present administration the political "pull," social influence and personal friendships are not so potent in the public service as they once were. During the earlier administration public office was regarded as a private snap. Partisanship was the most important requisite of an applicant for office. In those days Republicans and Republican office-seekers came to Washington and boldly and successfully demanded recognition at the hands of the administration they had been instrumental in electing. In those days civil service reform, which means efficiency in public office, was kicked about like a football, and departments in Washington were converted into collecting agencies for political campaigns.

Those days are happily, passed, and todya Republicans and Democrats work side by side in all branches of the public service, without fear of visitation from the once-dreaded official party headsman and collector.

BERKELEY, Sopt. 13.—Rev. August Bernard Orgren, a retired Swedish Baptist minister, died suddenly at his home tast right under circumstances appeculiar that it has been deemed necessary to hold an inquest. He took a bath just before retiring, and complained later of having pains in his stomach. Shortily afterwards he lost consciousness, dying within an hour. The first four years of his California ministry were spent in Chino, the succeeding six in San Diego and the final three years in San José. He came to Berkeley two years ago.

FOOD ADULTERATION

A dispatch from Washington anunces that the Agricultural Department is making strong efforts to keep to the country all imported goods entry of which is inhibited under a pure food act. Since August I, sen the act went into effect, approximately 600 shipments of ment, wine, we oil, etc., have been held up. adding the examination as to their pending the examination as to their purity, or the determination of the question whether their use is prohibsted in the country whence they are imported into the United States. Up A COSMOPOLITAN STATE.

cuestion whether their use is prohibited in the country where they are imported into the United States. Up to this time only one shipment, consisting of a number of cases of white when, has been refused entry. Our special agents and consuls abroad weet the white when, has been refused entry. Our special agents and consuls abroad weet the white when, has been refused entry. Our special agents and consuls abroad weet the white when, has been refused entry. Our special agents and consuls abroad weet the way and historicines are sent at once it is a second, with 42,304. Other they are to arrive to hold them my varieties are sent at once is the collectors at the ports where they are to arrive to hold them in warehouses and send samples to Wabbington for analysis or other examinism. It is good as far as it goes, but why confine such servitiny and suppression to imported the foods? It is a fact which cannot be controvered that there is the population to the controvered that there is colleged to do product on the market todays with exception of fresh. It is an interesting to note that there are only the control of the action of the controverted that there is colleged food product on the market which samples to case, because it is the population to these figures it is increasing to note that there are only the collector of the market which samples are all of the produced when the collector of the market has a control of the produced of the market with samples are close to or under the 2000 mark. There are altogether 87,360 natives of California in living in other States, and there are only in the produced with samples, are dosed with formaline. Likewise milk, while is especial to show are not injurious. Even fresh meast, as we have recently seen in Los Angeles, are dosed with formaline. Likewise milk, whole is especial to show a seen of the collector of the market works and seen of the collector of the collector of the market works and seen of the collector of the market was made and a free of the collector of the marke milk venders. Almost all canned foods, sil bottled beers, and much of the wine en the market, contain sallycilic acid or some other preservative. Of seven samples of salt coffish, examined by the Maine food experts, every one was found to contain sallyclic acid. It is scarcely necessary to tell any intelligent person that the constant swallowing we need—and need badiy—is ely a law to keep out adulcases of sickness.

What we need—and need badly—is not merely a law to keep out adulterated foods from abroad, but one that will absolutely prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated foods at home. The people of the United States should demand of Congress that such a law be passed, and should not be satisfied until they get it, irrespective of the determined opposition of the powerful meat-packing interests. There are few more important questions before the country today than this, for it is one that directly affects every man, woman and child.

Here is an extract from an exchange, which should be interesting to those who are "high livers."

"Our recent national pure-food laws will protect against some dangerous adulterations. German papers tellitat ordinary liver patty is made into fine "Strassburger" pate de fole grass by means of borax or salighile acid and of finely chopped and cleverly distributed oleces of black silk, representing truffles. In a for parts of the cuttificials and crabs are sold. In Paris, smalls of late are very popular, and the adulterators mix them with lungs of cattle and horses. Even entirely artificial smalls are manufactured. The shells, recoated with fat and slime, are filled with lung and then sold as "Burgundy" snalls. Lovers of fresh rooster combs are imposed upon by a substitute cut out of hogs' intestines. Chopped artificial truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened leather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black silks are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of black rubber, silk, or softened feather, and even whole truffles are made of laws. How much longer shall we as an intelligent people permit unscrupulous and selfish manufacturers of food products to defraud and poison the people in this way?

"A New England farmer, after hauling his swine products to a nearby canning factory, was surprised to learn that his canned chicken soups and deviled chicken were mostly hog and flavoring devices. The pounty meat coat about 20 per cent. more than the swine flesh. That explained why the factory needed mostly four-legged chickens. The neighbor of this farmer supplied pumpkins for a 'select ripe fruit' marmalade and jam factory, which turned out a highly labeled product in jars, earthen vessels and otherwise. He said to the manager one day:

"I fetch loads of pumpkins, potamanager one day:
"I fetch loads of pumpkins, potatoes an' turnips in here, but the hull output o' v'r fact'ry's fruitstuffs.'

"'We ship the other stuff abroad,' was the evasive reply.

"Pure fruit jam retails at 22 cents a 12-ounce jar. Ten-cent jams have a mere trace of fruit. No kitchen worries the manufacturer or the merchant because the jelly won't jell; a coagulator made of alum and sulphuric acid akends to that. For red fruits the proper color is added. A sweetening made from coal tar is also added. A tiny bottle of it contains the equivalent of 500 pounds of sugar, not glucose, for glucose is not sweet, as is commonly supposed.

"The jellies are made as already explained, and the jams of, any old thing. Apple 'juice,'-ffr instance, is made from the cores of skins of apples. The wild cherry in your cordial is nothing but a compound of glucose, vegetable color and sweetened water flavored with oll of bitter almonds; and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same ingredients, flavored with orris root, produce violet syrup, and the same again, make the lemon syrup with which your best soda was very likely flavored. LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12, 1863.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Referring to the campaign of The Times for the planting of trees along the sidewalks of the city (which is a mighty good proposition-keep on "pushing it along!") why could not this matter be arranged so as to have it handled by the city—through the Park Commissioners? The streets belong to the city, and it certainly would seem that the city should exercise enough control to determine whether a street should be left hot and dusty, or be Whiss Frieda Hellman and Louis Cole, whose nuptials are soon to be celebrated, were the guests of honor at one of the swellest dinners of the sea, son, given at 7:30 o'clock last night at Levy's Cafe by Phineas Newmark. The decorations were very elaborate, the color scheme being pink and white. Across the ceiling was spread a fish net cevered with rerns and white roses, and a large vase in the center of the table held a beautiful bouquet of La Marque roses.

Yesterday morning, Rev. Geo. Tho. Dowling, in preaching at Simpson Au-ditorium on "What the Years Have Taught Me About the Bible," said: of the Catholic Church in education, and seld that in a single discourse he could only touch upon the heads of the history of the world during the past twenty centuries, because the history of the Catholic Church in education is closely allied with the nistory of the nations, and said that from the Fentecostal day, until the present the church had been at the irrutan necessary for the up-building and salvation of society. The church had also a sacramental as weil as a gospel message, and its duty in the workt was to teach men the ruth as craments and supernatural life by which they were to be made the childides. The Hishop said that it would be interesting to trace the woutton of the church school from the early days when the Christians were chilgied. away your ever think of throwing away your watch because you did not have an infallible watch? Did you ever think of dismissing your physician, or going out from the teaching of your minister, because you did not have an infallible physician, or an infallible minister? Did you ever think of shutting the door of your home against the wife of your heart, the mother of your children, because she was not infallible? Well, exactly so it is with this book; the Book; the Book of all books? It is not without its errors. I know of a few modern Christion scholars, who are worthy the name of scholars, who would seek to deny that here are mistakes here in chence; but what of that? It was never intended to teach us geometry, or physiology, or astronomy, but to provide us with inspiration and guidance for being good. As someone else has here, as and, The Bible was given to teach us how to go to heaven, not how the heavens go. It is just as true as it ever was of this book, though it is not infallible, as it is of a true minister of God, though he is not infallible, or of your wife or your mother, though they are not infallible that wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way, by taking heed thereto, according to their word.

This book is like the headlight of the engine. It was never intended to linght up the track. And so this Protestant Episcopal Church of ours is the breadth of its spirit has never attempted to formulate any definition or inspiration at all. It simply says, in substance, "That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance, "That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance, "That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance," That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance, "That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance," That is inspired which inspiration at all it simply says, in aubstance, "That is inspired which inspiration and independent of the mother of the mother of the mother of the mothe

Temple Baptist Church.

At the morning service 'mo candidates were received into the church by baptism upon a profession of faith, Miss Louise Maude Hyatt, daughter of Miss Louise Mande Hyatt, daughter of Capt. Hyatt, and Marie McCoy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John C. McCoy. The ordinance was administered by the pastor, Robert J. Burdette, in the new baptistry. Dr., Harper of Redlands, and Dr. A. P. Graves assisted in the service. In the evening Mr. Burdette preached on the topic, "The Rainbow Chasers—an Exaltation of 'Hope,"—Text, Genesis ix, 14: "When I bring a cloud over the earth, the bow shall be seen in the cloud." Said he:

"Now, what does it mean? The child replice, 'It is a sign the storm is over. That is a child's answer. But the manshould know that first of all the rainbow is a sure sign there will be another storm: More storms, then? Sure. More storms, "and source," more trouble, more heartache, more conflict, more tears, more discouragements and more seen a man—and if your eyes were opened to behold all the wonders and mysteries of the material universe of God, you'd never see anything more marvellous, more incomprehensible than the life that is throbbing beside you this minute. Well, then, you have seen a human life—that required the power of omnipotence to create, dowered with the gifts which only omniscience can bestow—you have seen this man, despising the wonderful gifts of God, by his own wickedness, his own excesses, his own debauchery, his own sins make ruin of his life as fearful as though the storms of almighty wrath had rained upon it from skies of fire. You have seen that. Well, that's the deluge so far as that man is concerned. His world has been submerged in bitter waters. What is it to him that his neighbors' children sing and laugh as they play in the rays of the sunset? He cam hear nothing but the cry of a wild beast howling but the try of a wild beast howling upon his trail. Can't believe the story of the deluge when every day a man goes down in the storms that himself has called up to make a wreck of his own life? Now, when you find a man in that pitting case, what do you do for him? Put a gun into his hands and tell him there is no hope for him—that the best thing he can do for the life he has ruined, the good name he has trampled into the mire, the farely he has diagraced, is to blow out what he has left of the things he calls brains? Never you! If you are a true man or a true woman you take him by the hand; you lift him up; you are a true man or a true woman you take him by the hand; you lift him up; you are a true man or a true woman you take him by the hand; you ufful him up; you are a true man or a true woman you take him by the hand; you will live? Never, so long as there is a throb of life in a man do you give him up! The rainbow was made for that man.

"So when God's children came out of the ark and looked upon the ruined within them. Horror unspeakable at what they saw—and then, the dreadful fear of what the next storm might do f

COVINA. FIRE DEPARTMENT POWERLESS

COVINA, Sept. 13.—The residence of Miss Myrta Sturtevant, on Cottage drive, a teacher in the Covina public drive, a teacher in the Covins public school, was destroyed by fire shortly after 8 o'clock last evening. The fire, which started in the screen kitchen in the rear of the residence, originated from a defective oil stove. The fire department responded promptly, but was powerless to save the building, as the water had been cut off from the mains to repair a leak in the pipe. Fifteen minutes time was lost before the superintendent of the water company could be found to turn on the water. Great indignation is expressed at the Great indignation is expressed at the apparent negligence of the water company in neglecting to have water in the fire mains which had been laid at the expense of the property owners on Cottage drive. disappointments. Why else this emblem of hope? Why else this covenant of protection? For it means that the next storm will be no flercer than the one you have already weathered. The mighty hand that draws the cloud above the earth paints the bow upon it in the joyous colors that have tinted all the beauty in the word since first He commanded light in the darkness. It means there will never a storm how over the soul of a ma' that the strength and love of God will not lead him through to blessings. Black, red and yellow are the colors of the German fing, and the old legend ran. From might, through blood, to light. Out of the darkness of sin, or tgouble, or superstillion, or care, through storm of trial, stress of confilet, into the glory of light and peace.

"Why, long ago sin got into this beautiful world of God's creation, and with sin, walking in its alimy footsteps, came sorrow, and pain, and fear, and care, and every trouble that ever was or ever will be. Thorns and thistless choking the lilies and roses. Weeds creoping into the growth of the wheat. Tangies of the wilderness strangling the garden. The desert and crawling like a serpent over the terraces - the vineyards. Flerce beasts of the wastes lying in wait along the trails of men. Such a beautiful world of peace God. Angeles Family.

Before you go home

—their exaggerations corrected, and the really successful novelties stamped with the seal of authoritative approval—for if it is pictured in THE DELINEATOR it is "good form." It is equally the "most necessary" in the Nursery, in the Sewing-Room, in the Kitchen—throughout the whole house and out of doors in city and in country.

> THE PARTIAL LIST OF CONTENTS BELOW can only hint at the interest underlying every line:

can early hint at the interest underlying every line:

The Evolution of a Club Woman, by Agnes Surbridge, begins in this number. It is an autobiography and is the predefted success of the year. ¶]. C. Hemment, the world-famed camera expert, begins one of the most remarkable series of photographic articles ever presented. They relate to his personal advestures at home and in foreign lands. ¶ The Silent Partner, by Lymn Roby Meekins; A Florida Cracker, by Virginia Frazer Boyle, are prominent among the fiction features, while the departments are fuller than usual of good things, with especial interest centring in the children's pages.

If the "most necessary" of the magazines for Woman is that one which helps most is every hour of "her" day and brings its after-hour of fascinating leisure-reading when the day is over, then, surely, "JUST GET THE DELINEATOR." The evangelistic and healing meeting in the auditorium of Temperance Temple drew a large crowd yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Finis E. Yoakum, manager of the "Pisgah Faith Home," located at No. 6026 Hartford avenue, Highland Park, is the chief promotor of the "healing meetings" and is assisted by a colored evangelist, W. P. Robinson, who has come out from Pittsburgh, Pa.

The meeting opened in the manner of the usual evangelistic services, with a season of testimonies and exhortations by the two 'leaders. Then Evangelist Robinson preached a sermon. Brother Robinson spoke with the real negro dialect, and kept his congregation aroused to the point of frequent "Amens" and "Hallelujaha" "We're a peculiar people," said the evangelist, "and I want to tell you all that the angels would like to have our opportunities. There's a whole lot of the Elion took chies.

HEALING SEANCE.

Following the sermon those who wished to be anointed for healing were invited to come to the front seats. Seven responded. They kneft, and the leader, dipping his finger in a bottle of olive oil, asked each one of what disease they desired to be healed, then placed the oil on the candidates' forcheads, following this by prayer and the declaration to the patients that they could arise as the work was done.

There were no remarkable demonstrations. One woman said she wanted to be anothed for every kind of iliness, as she felt bad all over. She departed with a smile on her face. Another old woman hobbled down the aisle with a cane. She had had a broken hip, and the surgeons had not set it properly; so that she was permanently lamed. She received the anointing and was prayed for, but she still clung to the cane.

The star witness, Miss Nash, was present and able to get down the aisles to the mourners' bench by the aid of the backs of the seats. Brother Yoakum insisted upon her walking. She took a few steps and subsided in a chair. After the meeting he wanted her to dance in the aisles, and said he would whistle an accompaniment; but the poor woman wasn't equal to the task; the doctor said she wanted a little more faith.

Harry E. Sheldon is another of the cases reported healed at these meetings. He is a young man, 25 years of age, and has been suffering from asthma and enlargement of the heart. Young Sheldon said yesterday, as he panted and gasped for breath, that he was perfectly well, and that it was a striking case of divine healing. He admitted that he had "spells" when he was much worse, but that, he added, was because his faith got weak. Dr. Yoakum and his partner in the meetings went down to Hynes last

OAKLAND'S TIE GAME. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) SAN WRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The bakland and Seattle ball players ended their series of games today, the baklands winning five and tleing one of the seven contests. The morning of the seven contests. The morning game resulted in a tie, the score being 1 to 1 after ten innings of good ball. Both Moskiman and St. Vrain were at their beat and after the third inning not a run was made. The game was called at the end of the tenth inning on account of time allowance.

The afternoon struggle was a sloppy exhibition and Oakland cinched the result in the third inning when Barber was walloped hard and his fielders refused to work in harmony. Seattle got all its runs through the wildness of Graham. A running one-handed catch by Francks of a liner from the bat of Zinsaar in the fifth saved two runs for the Cripples and was the lone redeeming feature of the slow exhibition.

HOOPER DEFEATS DAVIS [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.] SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 13.—The mo SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 13.—The most exciting golf match ever played on the Happy Valley links was witnessed this afternoon by a large crowd of society people. The match was the finals for the Council Club of the San Rafael Golf Club, and was between R. J. Davis and E. J. Hooper, over thirty-six holes. In the first round of nine holes Hooper beat Davis one up. In the second round the score stood the same, and when the twenty-seventh hole was reached no change had been made. At the thirty-third hole, however, Davis having taken a brace, had three up and three to play to his credit. Hooper, however, took another spurt and when the thirty-six holes ended the two contestants were tied. On the play off of one hole Hooper won out.

In the ladies' putting contest for the Howitt cup, Mrs. R. Gilman Brown defeated Mrs. G. Roe by the score of thirty-three to forty strokes.

Sam McVey and Billy Roche, his manager, sea hed Los Angeles list night very weil pleased with their prospects for winning tomorrow night's battle.

McVey, who is not yet 20 years old, has done some growing since he showed here last, for now he weighs 216 pounds and none of it appears to be superfluous meat, either. He says he has done plenty of hard work for the coming bout, having been in training six-weeks altogether, and denounces all reports that he has not been taking. reports that he has not been taking od care of himself, by saying he is in better condition to make a winning in better condition to make a winning fight than ever before in his life. He will outweigh Martin.

"I hope Martin bores in as he says he will. I can promise him he will get all the fight he wants, and it will not go over ten rounds, either," said Billy Roche last night. "My man is big and strong, and I mean to send him in from the start, for I realize as well as any. the start, for I realize as well as any-body that McVey is not likely to win many decisions by standing off and sparring with as clever a man as Mar-tin."

sparring with as clever a man as Martin."

McVey will box few rounds at the Lily Club this afternoon with Frank Fields and Green, who have been his sparring partners, so local sports can get a good line on his present form.

A referee will be chosen this afternoon, and it will probably be Charles Eyton. Madden is well pleased with him. How the Oxnard brethren will stand is dependent upon who are in the lists, though they say any good man will do for their part of it.

Mark Shaughnessy has received a letter from Gus Gardner the light welterweight, asking him to make a match with Britt or some other good man from 13s to 13s pounds, here on the Coast. Sieger. Turner, or men of that class will suit him. Britt is probably out of the question, as he has picked off another mark in signing with Jee Tipman, the Baitimore lad who first gained puglistic renown by double-crossing McGovern in an exhibition bout in the Enst.

Gardner is a good boy, and has made some creditable showings lately against Martin Duffy and other welterweights.

Ed Gerson, C. B. Aumock and H. Gerson were on hand all day at Terminal, being about the only members of the old guard who continue to have faith in that resort. The Gersons got a sack of thirty-four fish, mostly small corbins. In point of size, the best fish of the day were two rock bass, caught at the end of the wharf on live bait. They would have weighed about four pounds aplece. During the late afternoon. Ed Wehrle and a party which had been outside froiling, camback to Terminal for a few bours of fishing, and the bay contingent returned from its fruitless voyage inside in hope of taking home a mess of something edible. The run of small surf was a thing of the morning and early afternoon, however; few fish were taken after 3 o'clock.

There was a big crowd in the bay. Ernest Beuchel and Butch Lillie in one boat, Eugene Elliott in another and H. W. Coomber and E. L. Hedderly in a third prospected the territory south of Lynch's wharf thoroughly, with but little to show for it. Other parts of the bay were better patronized, but faged the same. the same. The combination of wind and tide in the afternoon was a rather unpleasant one.

At the breakwater Jerry Mullen and son and many others were fishing all day. Up to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon sheepshead and occasional whitefish made up the catch, the bass being scarce. Late in the afternoon a big school of them rounded up the balt near the wharf, and in the brief time left, Mullen got four, but the wind and weather made the day a rather unpleasant one.

The outside trolling parties that got away early in the morning all reported good sport, but nothing sensational. Some barracuda were caught, but the bulk of the catch was bonita. Several boats found schools of mackerel and took a few, but as a whole the fishing was inferior to that of last week. The weather was very unfavorable, and trolling, owing to the short seas, was unsatisfactory work.

At some of the western beaches there was fair sport. Playa Del Rey produced some big yellowfins in the evening, and a number of small fish were taken all day. At Redondo some sea trout and baby halibut, big rock bass and small fry occupied the attention of the usual crowd. Fishing room was at a premium on the pier all day.

Several anglers reported small catches of bass at Port Los Angeles. The general opinion is that there would have been better catches yester-

SCHUETZENFEST. TARGET MEN. AT OPENING.

The first gun was formally fired over the new Schuetzen Park range yesterday in the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd of Turners and other marksmen, the occasion being the semi-formal opening of the grounds. Refreshments were served by the association, and a good time was enjoyed by the guests. Owing to the darkness of the morning scores were not sensational, but the marksmen were all very well pleased with the range and predict that it will be productive of higher averages than was the old range or Round Hill. Two big com-nissary ships, the Clinton and Gussie, are tonight anchored in the Missis-ppi River, just off from the Southern c docks with $25 strike breakers brought down the river and furnished by the Thiel Detective Agency of St. Louis. The negroes are in command of thirteen trained strike breakers from Chicago and St. Louis. Two of them, Harry Webster of Chicago and Steve Martin of St. Louis, were arrested today for carrying concealed weapons. The firm stand taken by the Citizens' Alliance has caused many union men to withdraw from their respective organizations, being confident that in taking this action they will receive the support of the better class of citizens. Several union plumbers have left the town since the lock-out, the announcement made by the alliance that the town was to be non-unionized having decided them to move on. At a meeting of the Carpenters' Union a few days ago, ten members asked for withdrawal cards. These were refused, but the action of the union had no effect on the resigning members, who say that they have severed their connection with it.

Often Mentioned Scheme of Electric Road Up the Coast from Los Angeles Revived and Partly Confirmed-Means Much to Ventura.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TOUS.)

VENTURA, Sept. 12.—Huntington's electric railroad surveyors are in the Ventura field. Eight of them, under command of E. L. Veuve, and with a Chinese cook and camping paraphernafia and provisions enough to last an indefinite time, arrived in Ventura yesterday and immediately hunted up George C. Power, who has had the management and control of Ventura's little horse-car line, a little old track which extends from the depot, through Ventura's main street, and to the town limits beyond, a distance of a mile and a half.

The arrival of this party of engineers in town caused much comment. There had been whispering for some time to the effect that Mr. Power had enlisted Mr. Huntington and his money in the Ventura field, and that a surveying party would soon be in the field, but people thought the rumor would go the way of all railroad rumors for months past and turn out merely a rumor.

Popular Excursions To the East.

There are many reasons why our Personally Conducted excursion parties are so popular—one of them is the character of our special conductor service. Our conductors are picked men. They must be competent and well informed, of course, but besides that their manner and way of taking care of things must be acceptable to our patrons.

A cheery, good-natured, willing, well-informed conductor can add greatly to the comfort and pleasure of the party. Our conductors are of this sort. You can rely upon that.

WATER SYSTEM COMPLETED.

CLAREMONT, Sept. 13.—The 200 pounds pressure to which the new steel pipe of the Claremont Citizens' Light and Water Company was subjected, proved that the first laying was inadequate for the strain. Accordingly the authorities at once took up the line and replaced it under the direction of Harvey Smith of Pomona. In the meantime all but 1500 feet of the lateral pipe, four inch and six inch, has arrived, and been layed with speclair reference to the high pressure, which at some points is about 250 pounds. Accordingly, all is now complete, except the laying of the laterals on Fifth sireet and Trepont avenue.

The reservoir has been stringthened by buttresses inserted on the outside, and a new coating of cement within.
Water now measures eight feet in the reservoir, and it stands the test. The reservoir is now being covered, and the pump which shows a maximum capacity of fifty miners' inches will soon be running and supplying Claremont customers.

Life insurance is a means whereby an energetic man who has not a spare dollar to bequeath is given the power of making a will good for several thousands in case of his death the next day. It is the duty of every man, rich or poor, to convert a part of his productive energy into a contingent fund that is incapable of destruction, and the only means of so doing is offered by life insurance investment.

Mutual Benefit Life Ins. Co. Of Newark, New Jersey,

Is a company with a record and history covering a period of 58 years that its management is proud of. It is a company managed strictly for the benefit of its policy holders. Its plans are the most equitable, its expenses low, its dividends large and surplus ample, and it gives better and more plans of insurance for lower cost price than any company in the world. I can prove this by facts and figures, and if you see me before insuring, I'll save you money.
